

The Marie H. Katzenbach School for the Deaf in Trenton, NJ is using VRS for our deaf students in our residential program and during the school day. It has become a vital communication means for all our deaf students in communicating with their parents at home throughout the state of New Jersey. Anything less than full support would place limitations on our deaf students communication process and restrict their lifestyle and self esteem.